

I elected to pay for xm radio because the broadcast stations do not offer the programing I want. Restricting their ability to offer programing hurts ME- the consumer. I choose not to listen to broadcast radio because it has become full of advertising that is insulting supporting programs that are worthless. Leave satellite radio alone!